armed conflicts continue to wreak havoc on children and families around the world with profound effects in 2017 420 million children nearly one in five were living in conflict affected areas an increase in 30 million from the previous year the recent surge in war induced migration referred to as a global refugee crisis has made migration a highly politicized issue with refugee populations and host countries facing unique challenges we know from research related to asylum seeking families that it is vital to think about children and families in relation to what it means to stay together what it means for parents to be separated from their children and the kinds of everyday tensions that emerge in living in dangerous insecure and precarious circumstances in global child the authors draw on what they have learned through their collaborative undertakings and highlight the unique features of participatory arts based and socio ecological approaches to studying war affected children and families demonstrating the collective strength as well as the limitations and ethical implications of such research building on work across the global south and the global north this book aims to deepen an understanding of their tri pillared approach and the potential of this methodology for contributing to improved practices in working with war affected children and their families

the god of the universe has made you some big promises he made them first in the old testament and they remain at the core of his heart and have never changed they re the key to your fulfillment and to his plans for you both in this life and the life to come god wants to rescue you from bondage and he wants you to be a part of a family that is making a difference this workbook a companion to the four cups dvd experience invites you on an eight week journey toward transformation in the ancient celebration of passover we find a picture of god s heart for us in the four cups of wine representing each of the core promises church of the highlands pastor and new york times bestselling author chris hodge reveals that no matter where we are on our spiritual journey these four cups of promise provide a simple powerful unforgettable way of reaching our potential and growing closer to god your thirst for more will finally be quenched and you ll experience a wellspring of joy hope and purpose a scholar s twelve year journey inside a secretive catholic group when the catholic charismatic renewal emerged in the late 1960s it inspired dreams of authentic christian community from this movement emerged tightly organized covenant communities most notably people of praise and the word of god sword of the spirit that promised to restore unity to a church they saw as weak confused and divided drawing on twelve years as an insider and decades of theological scholarship adrian j reimers reveals how these communities were not spontaneous works of the holy spirit but carefully planned structures designed by leaders who believed they could rebuild christianity through emergent leadership and strict hierarchical control this groundbreaking analysis exposes how these groups while claiming to renew the church actually function as separate denominations with their own pastoral systems mandatory tithing and authoritarian governance reimers reveals how their organizational structures represent a profound departure from orthodox catholic teaching on personal religious freedom and ecclesiastical authority demonstrating how their treatment of women marriage and spiritual life violates fundamental catholic teaching and human dignity as contemporary movements revive similar approaches to gender roles and religious authority not reliable guides offers essential insight into communities that have shaped thousands of american catholics while operating largely outside church oversight a work of rigorous scholarship and painful honesty this book serves as both historical record and pastoral warning about movements that promise renewal but deliver spiritual bondage
